

WHEREFORE

ART

THOU?

A PRIVATE PORTFOLIO EXHIBITION
AND ORIGINAL ART SALE TO BENEFIT
THEATRE MEMPHIS

We want you here.

You are cordially invited to attend a presentation and sale of fine art with historical commentary given by Walter E. Edelman, B.A., M.F.A. of Edelman Fine Arts, LTD., New York

Saturday & Sunday

Oct. 29 & 30, 2011

Noon to 5pm

Theatre Memphis

630 Perkins Ext

Open to the public.

Prices start at $250 and proceeds from the art sale will benefit Theatre Memphis.

Casual attire.

Complimentary refreshments will be served.

Event hosts:

Robert Hanusovsky, Dabney Coors,
Doug Saleeby, Didi Dwyer Montgomery,
Todd Stricklin, Jonny Ballinger,
and Elise Frick

Mr. Edelman is one of the leading art appraisers, critics and locators of fine art in the United States and is based in New York. Artists handled by Edelman Fine Arts have included: Renior, Joan Miro, Alexander Calder, Leroy Neiman, Norman Rockwell, Salvador Dali, Marc Chagall, Rembrandt, Peter Max and Picasso, just to name a few.

A selection of one-of-a-kind oils (unstretched), water colors and graphics will feature various styles and subject matters, including landscapes, still lifes, impressionism, figurative, abstract, architectural, seascape and floral.

Call 901.682.8601 by October 25 to reserve a showing or drop in to see what magnificent collectible art can be yours.

Wherefore Art Thou? A fundraiser by name to support the artistic excellence at Theatre Memphis.

THEATRE MEMPHIS

UNRIVALED PERFORMANCE. UNENDING APPLAUSE.